

GEOTECHNICAL PROJECT MANAGER – 10+ YEARS EXPERIENCE

Job Description:

Employment type: Full-time

YU & Associates is seeking a Geotechnical Project Manager in Elmwood Park, New Jersey Office.

You will be responsible for planning, scheduling and executive common to complex projects establishing techniques and standards for analysis and design, coordinating with senior level management, performing mathematical calculations, and training subordinates. The candidate will be managing within an integrated multidiscipline environment, and be further responsible for reviewing and certifying the work of staff, performance, managing billings, and maintain strong billability.

Requirements:

- B.S. degree in Civil Engineering and M.S. degree with geotechnical specialty (preferred);
- Registered Professional Engineer in New Jersey and/or New York;
- Possess 10+ years of geotechnical related regional experience;
- Demonstrated ability to develop diverse clients and grow a business;
- Proven ability to identify, develop and mentor talent;
- Effectively manage projects from concept through completion;
- Proven leadership and decision-making skills;
- Strong attention to detail with excellent analytical and judgment capabilities;
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, report writing, and project management skills;
- Working knowledge of computers and related geotechnical design software; and,
- Possess a valid driver's license in good standing.

We offer employees competitive compensation packages; medical, dental, and vision plans; life insurance, short- and long-term disability insurance; 401(k) after one year of service.

No agencies, please.